NOTICE – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

To the best of my knowledge, the above questions are answered truthfully. I understand that any contract issued will be in full reliance upon statements & representations made in this application. This application will be made a part of the policy. False or misleading answers to questions could result in the policy being null & void. I acknowledge that there is no coverage until the policy is signed and issued by an authorized representative and that there are waiting periods, before this important protection is in force.

Products and services are offered through Safehold Special Risk. Coverage is provided by unaffiliated insurance companies.
